Instruction for applying the liturgical prescriptions of the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches. This Instruction was issued January 6, 1996 by the Congregation for the Oriental Churches.

The Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches establishes that it is to be observed in applying the law or urge the observance of a law. 2° direct instructions to the Christian faithful of the whole Church over which he presides. A Liturgical Companion to the Code of Canon Law and the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches.

The Instruction for Applying the Liturgical Prescriptions of the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches is a document that establishes the procedures for the application of the liturgical prescriptions of the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches. It is issued by the Congregation for the Oriental Churches and is designed to help the Eastern Churches to obtain a liturgical heritage, according to the spirit of the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches.