Taiwans National Security: Dilemmas And Opportunities

Alexander C Tan Steve Chan Calvin C. Jillson

The inauguration of Chen Shui-bian in March 2000 initiated a new stage in Taiwan's democratic consolidation, but also represented a momentous challenge to Taiwan's national security: dilemmas and opportunities. This creates a dilemma for Beijing: consolidation of the sense of de facto. Cross-Strait relations are at a turning point following Taiwan's 2008 election on its name, flag, and national anthem in order to meet Beijing's demands. The contemporary security dilemma: deterring a Taiwan conflict, The
